The purpose of this employee information handbook is to describe for each employee, certain important policies of Truth Aquatics. This handbook does not contain a description of all the policies of Truth Aquatics and it supersedes all other employee handbooks which may have been previously issued. Although many policies are covered in this handbook, we understand that problems may arise which are not covered adequately or for which there may be a more suitable solution. You are therefore urged to refer such concerns to management.

Truth Aquatics retains the right to modify, suspend, interpret or cancel any part of the published or unpublished policies or practices of the Company, without advance notice, and at its sole discretion. Nothing in this handbook should be considered as creating a contract of employment or amending "at will employment."

Your signature below signifies that you have been provided with a copy of the Employee Handbook and that you have read, understand and agree to comply with policies and procedures set forth in this employee information handbook.
